Thomas turns it on to earn POTW

It was the efforts of Waverley's Laura Thomas which saw the Falcons' take a tight Round Eight clash and earn herself POTW honours.

Thomas was pivotal in the Falcons' clash against Diamond Valley, posting a game-high 18 points at a very credible 88 per cent from the field and pulled in an additional nine rebounds.

In a see-sawing game, it was Thomas' accuracy which helped the home side to secure a six point win (70-64).

Thomas' Round Eight efforts see her season averages sit at 7.9ppg, 5.7rpg and 1.2apg.

The league congratulates Thomas on her Round Eight efforts.

Other contenders for Round Eight include;

- Humesters Sharin Milner and Katrina Hibbert were in fine form on Saturday night (21 points, 11 assists and 26 points and 11 rebounds respectively). Their efforts saw the Broncos take a 23 point victory against Bulleen.
- Last week's Player of the Week Candice Rogers managed 16 points and 13 rebounds for Bulleen in the Boomers 23-point loss to Hume City.
- Melbourne's Hope Terdich shone in her side's 24-point victory against Eltham. Terdich hit 22 points and collected six rebounds.
